

Ann Cohen is the Executive Vice President of Accounting, Finance & Technology, Chief Financial Officer at The Institute of Internal Auditors (IIA).

Ann's 20+ year career extends across the financial services, banking, Big Four audit, real estate, not-for-profit, and hospitality industries. She is skilled in bank financing, bankruptcy, IPOs (initial public offering), systems integrations, mergers, and divestitures.

Before joining The IIA, Ann served as Chief Financial Officer at Woodfield Country Club, where she was responsible for financial reporting, risk management, payroll, federal and state compliance and preparation, debt financing, treasury, purchasing, IT, budgeting, strategic planning, membership, and communications.

Prior to Woodfield Country Club, Ann held several financial leadership positions in a variety of public and private companies including Taylor Morrison Homes (formerly Taylor Woodrow), a $2.5 billion international residential homebuilder and mixed-use property developer, Starwood Vacation Ownership, a $600 million international division of Starwood Hotels and Resorts, and Sunterra Corporation, a $450 million NYSE traded international vacation ownership company.

Ann holds a master's degree in Finance from Florida International University and a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting from the University of Florida. She also sits on the board of ChromaDex Corporation (CDXC).

