

Documenting 80 Years of the IIA Toronto Chapter's History

The IIA Toronto Chapter is pleased to share the publication of Institute of Internal Auditors – Toronto Chapter: 80 Years of Growth, Development, and Accomplishments, authored by Lal Balkaran, former Chapter President 2002–2004 and Honorary Member. This book represents research, interviews, and storytelling about the history and impact of our Chapter and is accompanied by a documentary.

About the Book:

Leadership and Legacy: It chronicles how the Toronto Chapter, established in 1944 as the first IIA chapter outside the U.S., set a global standard for internal auditing.

Milestones and Growth: The book traces our journey from inception to becoming the third-largest chapter worldwide.

Contributions to the Profession: It also explores the Chapter's role in advancing internal auditing education, professional development, and governance in Canada and internationally.

A Tribute to Volunteers and Members:

The book emphasizes the contributions of volunteers whose efforts have shaped the Chapter's legacy. We thank Lal for this contribution to documenting our shared history and preserving the stories of our Chapter.

For those interested in learning more, the book and documentary is available here:

Book: www.lbapublications.com

Documentary: <https://lnkd.in/gJyXt2Tj>

Disclaimer: The contents of the promoted book and documentary are solely the views and opinions of the authors and creators. The IIA and any of its Chapters and affiliates do not endorse, guarantee, or assume any responsibility for the accuracy, completeness, or reliability of the information presented. Any reliance on the content provided in the book and documentary is at the user's own risk. The IIA and any of its Chapters and affiliates shall not be held liable for any claims, losses, or damages arising from the use of or reliance on the information contained therein.