Location: Chattanooga State Community College

Date/Time: September 12, 2023, 12:30 pm - 4:30 pm

Cost: IIA / ACFE Member: $100, Non-Member $140

Speaker: Nathan Mueller with Special Guest, Dave Kukura

Description: Nathan Mueller committed fraud for the first time with an $1,100 check. He got away with it, so then he paid off all his debt. Eventually, Mueller was living far beyond his means. In the end, he had embezzled $8.5 million from ING, a multinational insurance firm where he had been an accounting manager. He will share details on how this happened and ways that we can recognize the signs and prevent fraud. This is a real-life example of fraud and the lessons that can be learned about the importance of controls, segregation of duties, system controls, processing controls, physical safeguards, controls in a time of change and the reality of the fraud triangle.
